INDEPENDENCE - DAY

It was a red-letter day in the history of India when the country got her freedom on August 15, 1947. It took hundreds of years to us to break shackles of slavery. People of the country celebrate this festival every year with great pomp and show. The main programme is celebrated at the Red Fort in New Delhi. Besides this festival is celebrated in every city and town, in school, colleges and universities. Independence is the freedom of the soul, a perception of the mind and a feeling understood by the heart. This freedom and feeling is that of liberation, patriotism and self-dependence. When all such terms are put together and imposed upon the majority, it is big responsibility on the youth of the nation and all those who create it. That nation is India. Every citizen of India is well aware of the importance of this day in our lives. The day is celebrated all over the nation in unity with great patriotism. The institution always takes a lead in celebrating festival of national importance. This year also great preparations were made. Everyone was eager to take part in the celebration. College campus was decorated with flags & buntings. Students were full of excitement and decorated the ground of college with tricolor balloons, flowers and small flag.

The chairman Mr. Vijay Agrawal was the chief guest of the programme. He hoisted the national flag on the college building sharp at 10:00 am. Physical comforts are increasing day by day but at the cost of increase in mental stress. Students Spend most of their time in college. Due to continuous mental work, peer pressure and family problems mind becomes stressful. They may have headaches, they are tired, and they are so exhausted that they just want to crawl into bed and sleep. Yoga not only releases mental stress, but it also give strength to the body and mind. Relaxation & meditation brings sound sleep and calmness to the mind.

Around these thoughts, the two hour session began with light exercise and some music for the participants. It helped the students relax and concentrate which was the mantra for the day "Relaxing helps reduce stress".
